

GEOPA - COPA Seminar

Agricultural Salaries and Social Dialogue in Agriculture in the Member States 28 - 30 September 2007, Budapest (Hungary)

GEOPA-COPA is organising a seminar in Budapest from 28 to 30 September 2007 on the topic of social dialogue in the agricultural sector of the 27 EU Member States. This will provide an opportunity to ratify the survey previously carried out by participants on the way in which collective agreements are negotiated in the different countries. Debates will highlight the very different negotiation practices adopted between the national organisations that represent employers and salaried workers in agriculture.

The aim of this seminar is to promote the development of social dialogue in agriculture, particularly in the EU's New Member States.

This seminar is reserved for the delegates of the GEOPA-COPA member organisations and guests.
